Property Description: A wonderful opportunity to renovate this lovely ground floor flat, benefitting from front and rear gardens and off street parking. The reception room is flooded with natural light through the floor to ceiling glazed doors and windows to the south facing garden. The kitchen also leads directly to the garden, there is a spacious bathroom and the hallway has a useful storage cupboard. The good sized double bedroom offers built in wardrobes and a large bay window looking towards the front lawned garden which is discreetly screened from the road by a hedge. The garden has a large shed offering excellent further storage or the possibility to convert it to a home office or gym.

This property offers huge potential to create a great home, subject to necessary planning permissions.

Location: Coombe Lane is well situated within walking distance of Raynes Park shops, cafes and restaurants, whilst the mainline train station offers fast and frequent trains to Central London and towards Surrey. The flat is also moments from a very convenient parade of shops, including a pharmacy, café, shops and beauty salons. The open spaces of Morley Park and Cottenham Park are also close by.
